

ALASKA VISITOR
Warren G. Harding was the only President to visit Alaska during his term of office. He made the journey in 1923 shortly before his death.

HIGH STATE
Colorado is said to be the highest state in the Union. Two-thirds of the state are a range from 6000 to 14,000 feet above sea level.

American-Standard Products in Caravan
Torrance-made products of American-Standard were among the $200,000 Home Builders Caravan display at the Billmore Hotel Feb. 28, it was announced here yesterday. The caravan, largest in the three-year history of the sponsoring Producers' Council, has been developed to show home building ideas which have helped reduce builders' construction costs or to serve as ways to increase sales. A member of the sponsoring committee was John J. Castello, 2710 W. 179th St., who represents American-Standard.

Three-Year-Old Hospitalized After Accident in Long Beach
FA 8-7385
Little Richard Ridgway, age 3 years, is in the Harbor General Hospital with a fractured skull. He was in an accident with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ridgway. The car driven by Ridgway collided with a lumber carrier along Neptune Ave., south of B St. in Long Beach. Cuts and bruises were suffered by Mrs. Barbara Ridgway.
Some of you might not have heard the latest about Robert Harvel. Robert lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Harvel at 1513 W. 215th St. before going into the Air Force and later being transferred to Turkey.

Last September Robert married the former Serife Adile Yesilirmak of Istanbul. In July they will come back to the States and a reception will be held in the bride's honor.
The San Pedro Youth Band is announcing that they are forming a new band. According to Willis Young, of the Y. in San Pedro all who wish may call for further information and all applications will be considered.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Laurson, of Denker Ave. are the proud parents of another little girl. Born to them on Feb. 22 at 9 in the evening, this little one came to make a permanent stay with three sisters, Karen, Jan and Julie.

The new little one has not been named yet because a son was expected but there is plenty time for that. She tipped the scales at 8 lbs., 5 ozs., and was 21 inches long. She is a beautiful child with black hair.
The regular meeting of the Brownie Mothers of Troop 218 was held in the home of Genevieve Moore of Torrance Blvd. Much discussion was held on the present cookie drive. The girls had sold all of their cookies and the money was turned in to the cookie chairman, Mrs. Moore.
A wiener roast was planned for May and prospects were mentioned that the girls could do in the future.

The hostess served donuts and coffee to the following women: Mmes. L. Ellison, L. Wilson, R. Wilde, D. Muth, I. Perry, G. Edwards, D. McNeese, W. Butler, M. Harrison, and B. Robertson.
Mr. and Mrs. D. Bree of Halldale are still battling the measles. Their daughter, Susie, just got over them in time to help her mother take care of Karen and Dannie. Carl is the leader of the Brownie Troop 218 and states that there will not be any meetings until the children are over those little red spots.

The 223rd Street School held its PTA meeting Tuesday in the school auditorium. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. David Goolsby. Mrs. Goolsby explained the background of the PTA as the meeting had as its theme.
Mrs. J. Gonderman led the flag salute, with a large crowd saluting. Then the president introduced Mr. E. N. Rose, president of Halldale PTA. The president stated that the project for the month of February was that all who could donate color books, comic books or scrap books to the San Pedro Health Center could do so and could contact her and she would take them over.
In April the PTA will sponsor a spaghetti dinner to raise money for the school and PTA. Further plans will be announced later.
The nominating committee was chosen to help select the officers for the coming year. They were Mrs. C. Eppinheimer, Mrs. Robert Carrick, Mrs. Don Cameron, Mrs. Willis Albaugh with Mrs. W. Vincent and Mrs. Gene LeRoy being the alternates.
Before the main part of the program, Mrs. J. Jacobson, Founders Day chairman, read an article on the Founders Day national program.
Then the meeting was turned over to the Honorary Life Membership chairman, Mrs. Carl Eppinheimer. She in turn conducted a "This Is Your Life" skit with the main character being the president of the PTA, Mrs. David Goolsby. Mrs. Goolsby was awarded this high honor because of her past hard work with the school and children. Her aunt, Mrs. Iva Flaming and her mother, Mrs. Don Davis, were introduced.
Mrs. Pola Carrier, youth chairman, introduced Bob Fleischman who in turn talked a few minutes on Scouting. He states that a new unit will be formed for the boys of the 223rd Street School. Anyone wishing for further information may call Mrs. Carrier or Mrs. Goolsby.
Mrs. Dankey introduced the new vice president, Charles Gustafson. Then she told that there are five new teachers but due to lack of space some of the children are on half day sessions.
Lana Robertson, along with some other girls from the Torrance area participated in the Camella Festival in Temple City Saturday. The parade was televised on Channel 5 at 10. We hope everyone watched it.
A couple of announcements: First, the regular board meeting of the 223rd Street School will meet March 4 in the school auditorium and the president urges all members to attend.
The second announcement is a reminder of the meeting of the Shoestring Strip Advisory Board. This meeting is open to the public and is held at Normandie Playground on Halldale and 224th St. The meeting is Tuesday, March 5.
A surprise wedding shower was given recently to the former Miss Sherry Harvey. Sherry recently exchanged vows with Dick Childers.
Several women took a pot luck lunch up to her home in Gardena and really surprised her. The date was Feb. 18, just three months after she was married which was a great surprise to her mother and father.
The women who brought her many "lovelies" were Mmes. Jewel Dye, Virginia Winters, Margie Holloway, Lucille Wilson, Margaret Kinyon, Margerita Schimmel, Avis Rasmussen, Kay Reese, Marie Bowers, Willie Cowdry, Marg Boehm, Mary Goolsby, Evelyn Alves, Mika Overstreet and the mother, Juanita Harvey.
As many members of our area attend the Baptist Church in Torrance, it would like to say that a very lovely program and reception was given to Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Northrup last Sunday.
As they are retiring from the ministry, many, many guests were present and spoke in their behalf. About 500 attended, several with tears in their eyes.
A beautiful buffet and several hours of records were presented to the very surprised couple, who are loved and appreciated by everyone. Wherever they travel or wherever they stay, they will always bring joy and comfort. God bless such a wonderful couple.
